Since your interview with [redacted] on 19 June, we have had your substantial qualifications reviewed throughout the Agency in an effort to locate a suitable vacancy for you. Unfortunately, this review did not reveal an opportunity in which we could take advantage of your extensive background and experience. This is no reflection on your qualifications but rather that our openings are few and are limited generally to entrance-level career trainees.

We appreciate your kind offer to serve with the Agency and we will get in touch with you if an opportunity of mutual interest becomes available.

Sincerely,

/s/ H. B. Fisher

Dear Dick:

STAT A member of my staff, [redacted] U.S. Navy, is retiring on the first of July and desires to utilize his intelligence experience in post-retirement employment. Present regulations prevent his immediate use in DIA. If CIA can use his talents, I highly recommend him for a substantive or management position.

STAT

STAT Prior to this tour in [redacted] and for most of the last four years has been assigned to DIA. For the first year he was assigned as a special assistant to the Deputy Director for Science and Technology; he spent the following year as the Executive Officer for the Deputy Director of Intelligence; and when the Directorate of Estimates was established in the fall of 1970 he came to work for me.

STAT If there is a prospective position that [redacted] might fill, I suggest that he be interviewed for the job. He can be contacted [redacted]

STAT [redacted] He will be on leave at his home address for the most of the month of June.

I sincerely believe he would be a real asset to CIA.

Regards,

Dan
